For the first time since 2018, OCYI's Critical Hours Task Group is hosting a training day! Let's build back better from the past few years. Featuring a keynote address and the following workshop options:

- Social-emotional Learning
- Supporting Youth through Play in the Critical Hours
- Tackling Racism and Oppression through Cultural Humility
- Trauma Aware Practice: Working with Children and Youth
- Why Critical Hours Matters
- Understanding Youth and Substance Use: Matching Our Response to Youth Needs

This event is for frontline staff at a before/after school programs, recreation programs, homework clubs or tutoring programs, youth drop-in programs, or other programs supporting kids and youth ages 6+!
